Recipient Name	Project Purpose	Project Location	Amount Requested ($000)
The Legal Clinic	The Legal Clinic, in conjunction with the Refugee & Immigration Law Clinic at the University of Hawaii's Richardson School of Law, will offer immigration law internships for Hawaii-based law students and training for legal practitioners culminating in a Criminal Immigration Seminar in the fall of 2023. The event would offer attorneys, law students, public defenders, prosecutors, and other legal service practitioners in Hawaii the opportunity to learn more about immigration consequences of criminal convictions, especially those resulting in removal or deportation.	Honolulu HI	$115
University of Hawaii Manoa	The purpose of the Shoreline Equity and Adaptation Hub (SEA Hub) is to understand shoreline communities' needs and develop equitable solutions to the challenge of adapting to sea level rise.	Honolulu (UH Manoa) and State-wide HI	$5,000
The Nature Conservancy Hawaii	To empower local communities across Hawaii to co-manage coastal resources in partnership with NOAA, the State Division of Aquatic Resources (DAR), and The Nature Conservancy (TNC) to restore healthy reefs and nearshore fisheries. Specifically, TNC will support regional coastal planning, in-water monitoring, public engagement, and local resource management by coastal communities and partners to increase local food security and coastal and community resilience.	State-wide HI	$1,000
The Marine Mammal Center	To design and launch a data-driven behavior change campaign focused on conservation actions in support of protecting people, monk seals, and the coastal environment.	State-wide HI	$500
